

Week of: Oct 8-12

Teacher: Judy Chambers Class: Art 2 Drawing

Monday	Objective: TLW demonstrate understanding of two point perspective by drawing the hallway in two point perspective
	Activities: Activities: Continue to draw the hallway in two-point perspective. Teacher continues walking around checking on students' work and helping them with any problems
	Materials: Materials: 9" x 12" White paper, pencils, erasers, rulers
Tuesday	Objective: TLW demonstrate understanding of two point perspective by drawing the hallway in two point perspective
	Activities: Continue to draw the hallway in two-point perspective. Teacher continues walking around checking on students' work and helping them with any problems. Students who are through with the perspective drawing are to now add details and shading to their drawing.
	Materials:
Wednesday & Thursday	Objective: TLW enrich their understanding of one point perspective
	Activities: Demonstrate how to draw words in one point perspective using a variety of formats. Show how to cut off the back lines that go from the corners to the one point in the same format as the front letters. Students are to use their name for this assignment. If it is too short (only 3 words), they are to use their last name or a nick name.  Students who are not through with their hallway drawings in two point perspective, may go out for one last day and finish after they have seen the introduction.
	Materials: 12" x 18" White paper, pencils, erasers, rulers, overhead examples, handouts, past students examples
Friday	Objective: TLW continue to enrich their understanding of one point perspective
	Activities: Substitute teacher will help students with their drawings of their name in one point perspective as explained in Thursday's lesson.
	Materials: 12" x 18" White paper, pencils, erasers, rulers, handouts