

Week of: Nov 5 - 9

Teacher: Judy Chambers Class: Art 3 Drawing

Monday	Objective: TSW demonstrate the ability to use the subtractive process in a narrative drawing
	Activities: Continue to draw their image using the subtractive process on their clayboard. Start to scratch out the white areas, and slightly erase the gray areas or their clay board. Be careful to leave the black areas alone.
	Materials: 8" x 10" black clay board drawings Clay board tools, typewriter erasers
Tuesday	Objective: TSW demonstrate the ability to use the subtractive process in a narrative drawing
	Activities: Continue to draw their image using the subtractive process on their clayboard. Continue to scratch out the white areas, and slightly erase the gray areas or their clay board. Be careful to leave the black areas alone.
	Materials: 8" x 10" black clay board drawings Clay board tools, typewriter erasers
Wednesday &	Objective: Students will demonstrate the ability to use the subtractive process in a narrative drawing
	Activities: Finish drawing their image using the subtractive process on their clayboard. Start to scratch out the white areas, and slightly erase the gray areas or their clay board. Be careful to leave the black areas alone.
	Materials: 8" x 10" black clay board drawings Clay board tools, typewriter erasers
Friday	Objective: TLW take an active part in the critique of their artwork and that of their classmates.
	Activities: Substitute today – teacher at State Art Education conference. Critique of students Clayboard drawings, put work up and critique it. Discuss composition, value, and drawing skills.
	Materials: Finished Clayboard drawings