

Monday	Objective:
	Activities: Holiday
	Materials:
Tuesday	Objective: Learn the Process of Relief Printmaking through the Linoleum printing technique
	Activities: Many students continue to cut their linoleum plates, following correct and safe procedures. Review printing process shown to the students the Friday before Spring Break.
	Materials: linoleum, non-slip kitchen shelf material, linoleum knife and blades. Plexiglas plates,
Wednesday & Thursday	Objective: Learn the Process of Relief Printmaking through the Linoleum printing technique
	Activities: Teacher demonstrate correct printing procedures and techniques and show correct clean up procedures, too Some students may still be cutting their linoleum but all should be through by the end of class today. Some students will start printing their edition of 5 good, clean prints from their plate.
	Materials: linoleum, non-slip kitchen shelf material, linoleum knife and blades. Plexiglas plates, Black w/s printing ink, brayers, masking tape, printing paper, wooden door knobs, newspaper
Friday	Objective: Learn the Process of Relief Printmaking through the Linoleum printing technique
	Activities: Students continue to print their plates, making an at least 5 good, clean prints.
	Materials: Plexiglas plates, Black w/s printing ink, brayers, masking tape, printing paper, wooden door knobs, newspaper